IKE WINS BY LANDSLIDE

Williams Forges Into Lead As Republicans Sweep State

By JACK I. GREEN

DETROIT (AP)—Gov. G. Mennen Williamms, trying to be the third governor in 100 years to win a third term, swam out ahead of the Eisenhower-Republican trend in Michigan today.

Beginning to drop farther behind was U. S. Senator Blair Moody, the political neophyte who the wise men said couldn't win election on his own hook. He was appointed to the Senate by Williams in 1951.

Ahead By 8,401

With 4,149 of the state's 4,480 precincts counted unofficially, Williams had a wavering 8,401 vote lead over Republican Secretary of State Fred M. Alger Jr. his opponent.

This included all but 107 of Wayne's heavy Democratic precincts. There were indications that sizable blocs of Democratic votes still were out.

There were 228 outstate precincts missing, most of them concentrated in normal Republican areas.

Moody, the unexpected whizz-bang kid of the 1952 election, trailed Republican Congressman Charles E. Potter by 33,000 votes with 4,120 precincts reporting, 1,725 of them in Wayne.

Another Recount?

But the races were close enough at this stage that observers started speculating about a recount.

Two years ago Williams won by less than 1,200 votes, in a recount.

The race for the state elective offices below governor saw all Republicans with substantial leads, but here the Wayne County vote was behind and in view of the close race at the top no one was willing to declare them elected.

The hot senatorial and gubernatorial races overshadowed but could not diminish the crushing victory that Dwight D. Eisenhower won in Michigan, pulling the state's 20 electoral votes to him by a margin which was nearing 300,000.

The Democrats had one almost certain consolation, no matter what else. Chief Justice Clark J. Adams of Pontiac, whom Williams named to the state Supreme Court three months ago, was walking away from his Republican opponent, Charles H. King of Detroit, pre-Chicago Taft manager for Michigan.

By GLENN ENGLE

DETROIT (AP) — The Republicans grabbed off Michigan's newly added Congressional seat today to boost their majority in the state's delegation to 13 to 5.

Detroit City Councilman Charles G. Oakman edged out Mrs. Martha W. Griffiths in the revamped 17th district while other GOP candidates held their ground. The Democrats continued in control in the five Wayne County districts they have monopolized for years.

The 17th race remained tight while election clerks plowed through piles of ballots.

Mrs. Griffiths, wife of former state Democratic chairman Hicks Griffiths, waged an all-out campaign in an effort to give the Democrats the extra seat.

But with all but 28 of the district's 285 precincts reported, Oakman had 81,391 to 72,984 for Mrs. Griffiths.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

Twenty-Year Rule Over White House Broken By Nation

By JACK BELL
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower smashed all voting records today as he won the presidency in a sprawling landslide that left control of Congress teetering in the balance between Republicans and Democrats.

Americans who liked Ike gave the 62-year-old war hero the greatest vote ever poured out for a presidential candidate as he foreclosed a 20-year Democratic mortgage on the White House and sent Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois down to crushing defeat.

With about 29,000 precincts yet to be tabulated, Eisenhower already had rolled up 27,976,106 votes—well over the previous record of 27,751,597 set by Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1936 and far out-distancing Wendell L. Willkie's Republican highwater mark of 22,305,198 in 1948.

Republicans Hold Edge

But despite the Eisenhower sweep — including a deep ballot wedge into the no-longer Solid South—the two major parties fought down to the final count from yesterday's election for what could only be hairline control of the House and Senate.

Republicans had a slight edge in the struggle to organize the two houses and thus control their committees. But there was nothing of certainty in the outcome despite the general's more than 5,000,000 popular vote advantage over Stevenson.

There was a distinct possibility that heavy absentee balloting might affect the outcome of the house control battle.

Stocks Go Up

A minimum of 48 seats, plus a tie-breaking vice presidential vote, is needed for Senate control. In the House, 218 votes are needed. Both parties were close, but neither had the prize.

News of Eisenhower's victory was hailed in the free world's capitals as indicating a continuation of American policy of resisting Communism. The stock market went up.

Stevenson lost his own state of Illinois and appeared likely to wind up with only nine Dixie ond border states having a total of 89 electoral votes. Eisenhower had clinched or was leading in 39 states with 429 electoral votes, 163 more than the 266 needed for election.

But while the voters from New York to California and from Minnesota to Texas liked Ike in emphatic terms they were somewhat less certain it was "time for a change" in the Congress the Democrats have dominated for the last four years.

Mandate From Voters

Control of both the House and Senate remained in doubt in mounting returns from yesterday's record-smashing election.

Even if his party couldn't keep pace with Eisenhower in the far corners of the land, the 62-year old warrior-statesman had a personal mandate from the voters matching in volume that given Herbert Hoover, his last Republican predecessor in 1928, and rivalling some of those for Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The informal Republican-Southern Democrat coalition which has dictated congressional action on legislation was strengthened by the Eisenhower victory and the general could expect from it support for the program he laid out in his campaign "crusade."

House control apparently hinged

Detroit Edison Peace In Sight

DETROIT (AP)— Negotiators for the Detroit Edison Co. and its striking CIO Utility Workers meet at 2 p.m. today in a new attempt to end the 14-day-old walkout.

Federal and state mediators called the session after reporting yesterday that for "the first time in weeks we see a possible settlement."

Chairman George Bowles of the State Labor Mediation Board, however, declined to predict a quick ending.

The company and union unexpectedly resumed negotiations Monday night, meeting for seven hours and then recessing for Election Day.

Federal Judge Arthur F. Lederle postponed until Friday, at the union's request, a hearing on its petition for an injunction against a state-conducted strike vote of its 4,000 members.

The union says it already has conducted its own strike vote and that the state's Bonine-Tripp Act does not apply because the company is engaged in interstate commerce.

The strike was called when the company declined to accept a 10-cent an our pay raise recommended by a fact-finding board named by Gov. G. Mennen Williams. The company offered six cents.

Wins 24th Term

CHICAGO (AP)— Rep. Adolph J. Sabath, 86, who has served more consecutive terms in Congress than any other man, won his 24th term yesterday.

A Democrat, Sabath defeated Louis F. Capuzi, Republican, for Chicago's 7th District seat.

Sabath, now rounding out his 46th year in the House, first won the seat March 7, 1907.

Heavy Fighting Flares In Korea

SEOUL, Korea, (AP) — Bloody fighting for Triangle Hill and Sniper Ridge flared today into the heaviest action of the 23-day struggle for the Korean central front heights.

South Korean troops in a predawn sneak attack stabbed within 10 yards of the crest of Triangle Hill, then were pinned down by Chinese Red hand grenades and machinegun fire. Five previous Allied attempts to retake the height, lost on Friday, have stalled in the same place.

Other Republic of Korea troops seized one of two knobs on an offshoot ridge of Triangle, called Jane Russell Hill.

Massive artillery support and fighter-bombers supported the U. N. attacks.

No Time To Gloat Over GOP Victory, Hoover Tells U. S.

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover issued a statement early today saying, "The American people have ordered a change in the administration of our government but the hour of victory for our cause is no time for either recrimination or exultation."

He added:

"The problems before us are more difficult than were even debated in this campaign. The majority of our people are giving their faith of solution of our problems into the hands of Gen. Eisenhower and his friends. I am sure the whole American people pray the Almighty for his success in the great task now before him."

People Got Fooled, Says Bolter Morse

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Sen. Morse of Oregon, who resigned from the Republican party to support Gov. Adlai Stevenson, said tonight "Eisenhower and Nixon fooled the people and won the election."

In a telephone conversation with the Portland Oregonian, Morse also said from Washington:

"The people allowed themselves to be fooled and lost the election We must close ranks in the national interest by supporting anything the Republicans propose which will be good for the country, and fearlessly oppose Republican proposals which will endanger our domestic welfare and the winning of an honorable peace."

Youth Skips School; Mother Fined $2

PARIS, Ont. (AP) — Mrs. Percy Gill was sentenced yesterday to pay a $2 fine or spend two days in jail because she wouldn't send her 14-year-old son to school.

Chief Constable Thomas Bean said the boy had been to class only a half day since the fall term began. Mrs. Gill said she needed her son at home because her husband was ill and she has to support their six children. The constable refused, however, to give the lad a permit to stay away from school.

Military Plane Will Take Ike To Korea

NEW YORK (AP)—President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower today advised President Truman that he will use a military plane to fly to Korea, and will notify the defense secretary of his departure as early as possible.

Chiang Asks Support Of 12 Million Chinese Living In Other Lands

By FRED HAMPSON

HONG KONG (AP) — Chiang Kai-shek has made a strong bid for the organized economic and moral support of 12½ million Chinese living in foreign lands.

Until last month it was felt that this powerful segment of expatriates, influential beyond their numbers in The Philippines, Indochina, Indonesia, Malaya, Burma, Thailand and elsewhere had merely turned their backs on communism. They had not swung to the Nationalist cause.

Calls For Blockade

Now it looks as though they might be veering Chiang's way.

During most of October some 257 delegates representing Chinese around the globe met in Taipeh, Formosa, for what was called the Chinese Overseas Affairs Conference.

Chiang called for economic blockade of the Reds and a sweeping boycott of Chinese who deal with them. Although the delegates endorsed resolutions to this effect by acclamation, observers here doubt if Chiang will be able to muster full support.

The overseas Chinese is a hard-headed businessman who meets payrolls and sells merchandise. He taps rubber and runs shipping lines and keeps banks functioning.

Russia Gets Rubber

A London report said Russia got 64,853 tons of rubber during the first six months of this year from countries in the Western camp. A lot of it was tapped and shipped by overseas Chinese — some of whom may have been delegates at the Formosa meeting.

In this sense, the overseas Chinese is not an all-out antagonist of communism or a pro - Chiang fighter.

But if the bulk of the Chinese living abroad are permanently won over the Chiang, the Communists will feel it economically as well as politically.

This group has sent tremendous money contributions home to China, mostly as remittances to their families. If they think Chiang has a chance of liberating the old folks they will send the money to him.

Delegates at the Taipeh conference set their sights on 100 million dollars to be raised through issuance of interest free Nationalist bonds.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Gen. Dwight D Eisenhower captured Minnesota's 11 electoral votes in Tuesday's election to put the state into the Republican presidential column for the first time in nearly a quarter century.

Earthquake Waves Whip Pacific Shores

HONOLU (AP)—A massive convulsion of the earth's crust deep under the Pacific Ocean off Siberia hurtled seismic sea waves a quarter of the way around the world yesterday at jet plane speed.

Mighty walls of water lashed the Aleutians, Midway and Hawaii. Less waves washed against the Pacific shores of Canada and the United Stattes.

The seismic shocks burst out of the sea of Okhotsk, between Siberia and Japan. They generated waves which streaked across the Pacific at more than 400 miles an hour.

Warning messages crackled through the air. low-lying islands and coastal cities across 5,000 miles of ocean were alerted.

Apparently not a single life was lost. Damage was remarkably light.

The last time such great waves swept across the Pacific—on April 1, 1946—169 persons were killed in Hawaii. The waterfront of Hilo, a city of 25,000 on the island of Hawaii, was demolished three blocks deep.

A 13-foot wave knocked down telephone lines on Oahu, marooned automobiles and flooded yards.

In Honolulu harbor, waves tore a cement barge from moorings and hurled it against the Matson freighter Hawaiian Packer. At Hilo, a $13,000 boathouse was demolished. Twelve-ton Coast Guard buoys were ripped loose from their moorings.

Dearborn Won't Pay Mayor's $7,500 Debt

DETROIT (AP) — Mayor Orville Hubbard of suburban Dearborn lost $7,500 in his city's election.

The voters refused to approve a $7,500 expense account which Hubbard had asked them to contribute to meet a libel judgment against Hubbard as the result of charges Hubbard made in handbills in winning reelection two years ago. But Hubbard has never paid up.

Hubbard is under bond not to leave Wayne County until the debt is paid. If he leaves, Fish can jail him.

Lapeer Eviction Warrant Denied

LAPEER (AP)—Dr. Ira D. McCoy of Port Austin lost both his bid for Congress and for a manslaughter warrant yesterday.

McCoy, a Democrat, was denied his request for a manslaughter warrant against the evictors of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens, who was removed from a farm by court order. McCoy claimed that her forceful eviction was responsible in part for her death.

Lapeer County Prosecutor Kenneth H. Smith denied the warrant request and advised McCoy to go to the state attorney general if he wished to press further. That is the next legal step if a prosecutor refuses a warrant.

Mrs. Stevens, a 61 - year - old widow, died in Detroit Saturday. Her eviction resulted from her refusal to pay an assessment levied several years in connection with the failure of the Lapeer Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Association. Members were assessed to pay the Mutual's debts.

Smith termed "ridiculous" McCoy's request for warrants against Sheriff Clark Gregory of Lapeer County, all the deputies who aided him in the eviction, Mrs. Grace White who now owns the Stevens farm and others.

A number of Mrs. Stevens' neighbors face charges of interfering with administration of justice by trying to prevent the woman's eviction.

Democrats Annex All Delta County Offices

Delta county went Democratic yesterday with one exception — it gave a majority vote to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Republican candidate for President.

But all the rest of the way the Republicans lost to the Democrats by convincing margins.

The Democrats swept out of county office the Republicans' lone office holder — Mary Constantineau, county clerk and register of deeds — who was elected two years ago and was a candidate for re-election.

On the basis of unofficial returns,

ELECTED

Einar E. Erlandsen — Delta representative in the state legislature.

Nicholas P. Chapekis—Prosecuting Attorney.

William E. Miron—Sheriff.

William E. Butler — County Clerk and Register of Deeds.

Ann S. Villeneuve — County Treasurer.

Otto S. Hult and Thomas A. McInerney—Coroners.

William Miller — Probate Judge.

Miss Constantineau was defeated by 862 votes. William E. Butler, Democratic candidate of the office, polled 7682 votes to Miss Constantineau's 6820.

Eisenhower Majority

Eisenhower and Nixon received 556 more votes than Stevenson and Sparkman for the only Republican victor in the county.

The Eisenhower - Nixon vote was 7476, that for Stevenson and Sparkman 6920.

Chapekis Leads Ticket

The Democratic ticket in Delta county was headed in popular vote by Nicholas P. Chapekis, Escanaba attorney, who polled 8644 votes to defeat John H. Root of Escanaba for the office of prosecuting attorney. Root's vote was 5574.

Voting was exceptionally heavy

Illinois Taken By Republicans

CHICAGO (AP) — Republicans, paced by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's presidential victory, smashed Democratic domination in Illinois today with a nearly clean sweep of major state offices.

Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, lost in his home state, giving the Republicans the state's 27 electoral votes. It was the first presidential victory in Illinois for the Republicans since 1928.

The Republicans appeared assured of winning five of the six contests for major state offices. The race, however, for secretary of state was close and it appeared the outcome would not be decided until all the votes were tabulated.

In the races for Congress, returns showed 14 of 17 incumbent Republicans and seven of the eight present Democrats re-elected.

Tumbling to defeat with the Democratic presidential nominee was his personal choice as the party's candidate for governor, Lt. Gov. Sherwood Dixon. Dixon led in Cook County but trailed by a wide margin in downstate voting for Republican William G. Stratton, state treasurer and former congressman.

Faces Are Glum On Truman Train

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN (AP) — President Truman kept his thoughts to himself today as he rolled toward Washington on the campaign train that started out over the Labor Day week end carrying high Democratic hopes.

Men with long faces and stenographers fighting back tears moved slowly through the cars this post-election day making small jokes at which nobody smiled very much.

Ace In Hole Fails

They had figured the odds favored Dwight D. Eisenhower when they left Washington that Sunday in September. But the champion whistle-stopper of 1948 was their ace in the hole and they had counted heavily on his "give 'em hell" campaigning.

Harry S. Truman gave them all he had—in Milwaukee, in New York, in Boston, San Francisco—in all the big cities and little towns from one end of the country to the other.

For 18,000 miles he traveled, making a total of 212 speeches for Adlai Stevenson, driving himself even harder than when he campaigned for his own election when he was four years younger—64 instead of 68.

Always Confident

He finished each night so weary he crawled into his berth often too tired to look over speech material for the following day.

But each morning found him up at 6 a.m. smiling, cheerful, and eagerly awaiting another day.

The crowds were big, some times larger than those he drew four years ago. And they laughed at his sallies and urged him on with cries of "pour it on" just as before.

When the campaign ended in his native Jackson County, Mo., the grey-haired, bespectacled Missourian reflected optimism.

Two of his former Democratic national chairmen, Frank E. McKinney and William M. Boyle Jr., showed him private polls indicating Stevenson was "in."

Truman didn't produce any polls himself, but he told reporters he thought McKinney and Boyle were "both on the right track."

When he dropped his ballot into the box at Independence yesterday morning, he was asked whether he was sure that "is a winner."

He replied with a grin: "Of course, no question about it."

Truman was in bed before 9:30 p.m. and apparently slept while his staff sweated out the returns in an atmosphere of steadily increasing gloom

Truman's Precinct Goes To Eisenhower

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — President Truman's home precinct here gave Eisenhower 197 votes to 124 for Stevenson in the presidential election yesterday.

That was almost a direct reversal of the 1948 vote. The precinct then gave Mr. Truman 197 votes to 135 for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

County Hay Still Needed In South

No let-up in the demand for hay in the drought areas of the South seems to be in sight as orders continue to be received at the local Production and Marketing Association office.

A new call for 450 tons of Delta county hay was received this week by PMA official Mrs. Irene Blomberg, the fifth order to come in here since the shipments began early in September.

1,500 Tons Shipped

Delta county farmers have already sent more than 1,500 tons to the southern states where it is used as fodder for livestock.

Some delay in filling the orders has been experienced here, according to Mrs. Blomberg, because of a shortage of railroad on which the farmers load their drought-area hay.

The hay crop in the South was almost totally wiped out by a dry spell during which no rain fell from the middle of June until early August. To help the farmers revitalize the agricultural South, the federal government arranged the program by which the southerners are sold, at a minimum price, the products they need to restore the productivity of their farms.

Going To Oklahoma

The order received this week is destined for Oklahoma. A previous call was shipped to Arkansas.

"Almost all of the southern drought states have now received some hay from Delta county," Mrs. Blomberg reported.

Thirty-eight railroad cars will be needed to fill the current order. No deadline is set on the request, according to the local office, and cars are sent out as farmers throughout the county fill them.

Guards Get Practical Training At Fairgrounds

The Delta county National Guard company is getting plenty of practical training in its project of extending Escanaba's indoor rink at the U. P. fairgrounds, Capt. Roy Johnson, commander, reports.

The men of Company C, 107th Engineer Combat battalion, are engaged in dismantling portions of the interior of the building, making concrete forms and laying concrete to level and extend the rink surface, improving seating facilities and making several other improvements.

Included in plans to improve the exhibition building are new dressing rooms, shower facilities and a new seating arrangement in which use will be made of the existing 45-degree angle I-beams on the east and west sides of the rink.

"This job coincides with our training program in many respects and is proving to be very worthwhile," Captain Johnson said. "Much of it is the kind of work army engineers might be called upon to perform. Carpenters, electricians, vehicle operators, air compressor operators and men using the rock drills and pavement breakers are getting good, practical training."

In addition to the National Guard work, engineers of the Harnischfeger plant in Escanaba are participating in the community project. Wayne Haddock, plant engineer, is drawing plans for cross bracing to support the south balcony and for the new seating arrangement.

This work will get underway soon, and the National Guardsmen will lay concrete at the south end of the rink next Tuesday night, their regular weekly drill night.

Firemen's Hours To Be Reviewed

The Escanaba Civil Service commission was to consider shortening of hours for city firemen at a meeting at 5 p. m. today in city hall.

At the last commission meeting, firemen, who work slightly more than 73 hours per week, requested shortening of their hours. The commission at that time scheduled the matter for further study.

Firemen seek a Kelly day every 12th calendar day instead of every 16th calendar day. They work a 24-hour shift in two platoons.

The commission also was scheduled to discuss changes in specification for some positions.

Commission recommendations are submitted to the city council, which meets at 8 p. m., Thursday.

Of this amount, $10,210.03 was pledged in Escanaba, 81 per cent of its quota, and $2,646.86 in Gladstone, 60 per cent of its quota. The 14 townships' return is $579.95, against a quota of $3,000, but Chest Council officials pointed out that collections there are greater but have not yet been turned in. The post-election cleanup drive got underway today.

County Voters Like 1 And 3

Delta county electors voted overwhelmingly for Amendment Proposals No. 1 and No. 3 and decisively rejected Amendment Proposal No. 2 in yesterday's general election.

Proposal No. 1, for changing the search and seizure laws to aid in the enforcement of narcotics laws, was approved by Delta County voters, 8252 to 2311, with only the Gladstone No. 4 precinct unreported.

Proposal No. 2, the CIO-sponsored reapportionment amendment proposal, was snowed under, 4064 yes to 9439 no.

Proposal No. 3, to provide for area as well as population in reapportioning the legislature, carried in this county, 8989 to 2692. The vote totals on both Proposal 2 and 3, as in Proposal 1, did not include the Gladstone Fourth, where the vote count was slow.

Use Of .22 Rifles In Woods Banned Starting Nov. 10

Attention was directed today by John Chriske, district conservation supervisor, to a new Michigan law which prohibits the use of 22 rifles in the woods for a five day period before the opening of the deer hunting season Nov. 15.

For the period Nov. 10 to 15, Act 251 of the Public Acts of 1952 prohibits the carrying of 22 rifles in the woods, as well as rifles of other calibers. In the past large caliber rifles were banned for five days prior to opening of deer season, but 22 rifles could be used in the woods.

Under the new law the only guns that may be legally carried in the woods for the five days prior to the deer hunting season are shot guns loaded with fine shot.

The law does not prohibit the transportation of rifles of any kind by hunters to hunting camps during the five-day period, but they may not be used in the woods.

Tremendous Vote Piled Up In Delta County Election Tuesday

AS these words are being written it is clear that a tremendous vote has been piled up in Delta county.

Approximately a third of all registered voters in Escanaba and Gladstone had cast their vote before noon Tuesday. This is a terrific record and one which the voters of the two cities can well be proud. It also serves as a tribute to every organization that participated in a gigantic get-out-the vote campaign.

We hope and believe that the marvelous voting record made yesterday will set a new standard for the county voters. It shows that voters have become more conscious of their election privilege, conscious of their obligations as citizens.

There is a particularly encouraging aspect in this voting trend and that is the enthusiasm of young voters. These new voters, trained in citizenship in the schools, recognize their obligations to a stronger degree than most of their elders. As a result, a larger percentage of them vote. It is a habit that will carry through with them for their lifetime.

Of course we cannot be complacent about our latest achievement. We still nave a long way to go to reach 100% and until we do reach it, we have a job to do.

Alarming Trend Needs Reversal

ONE of the great afflictions of modern-day federal government is the creeping silence that spreads through departments and agencies and blankets information the American citizen ought to have.

World War II gave great impetus to this disease, until now it is of epidemic proportions. Military security was the great excuse for not telling the public the public's business, and the habit, once established, was never shaken off.

At times top government officials have been emboldened to suggest the department bosses should have it entirely within their discretion what to release and what not to, regardless of whether security is involved. Such a policy obviously could be designed for only one purpose—to insulate government from chiticism of its mistakes.

Fortunately, the sharp outcries of the press and others have usually been sufficiently disturbing to cause the shelving of these extreme notions. But it is still not an easy task to find out nowadays what your government from criticism of its mistakes.

And now, in an article in the current American Magazine, we read that the infection of government silence is making inroads even in local government. Local residents of cities are finding it difficult to get into meetings of town boards, school boards, planning commissions, and the like.

Perhaps this should have been expected. Local officials, seeing the example of the federal government, could hardly have helped imitating the practice.

Silence in government operations is a device at political security. The official who can conduct his affairs without public scrutiny will be safer at the next election. But it is a strategy destructive of the aims of democracy—which feeds upon full information. And a new administration ought to set about quickly to reverse this alarming trend.

Fighter Planes Have Come A Long Way

MAYBE the thing hasn't been getting much notice, but the fact is our present-day fighter planes are becoming pretty long-winded aircraft.

The other day the second mass flight of Thunderjet fighters was dispatched across the Pacific to the war theater. With the aid of mid-flight refueling equipment, these planes have been making non-stop, round-trip flights coast to coast and are flying both oceans on island-hopping routes.

This isn't minor news. It means our fighter wings are now almost as mobile as our bombers—a vital matter in the defense of America and the rest of the free world.

Better still, the Air Force says the Thunderjet can carry a small atomic bomb. This vastly increases our A-bomb delivery potential, though obviously it likewise heightens our dependence on offshore and foreign bases as intermediate stopping points for these craft.

We've come a long way from the little pursuit ships of old, which sometimes seemed barely capable of carrying their pilots.

A man from Massachusetts, caught after a jail break, said he just wanted some fresh air. A nice compliment for the jail.

One-fifth of the earth's surface is covered by trees—and you're likely to find one of your yard chairs up in any one of them come Halloween.

Cucumber season is about over in some sections—and mom's out of a sweet pickle.

One item of change we need that hasn't been mentioned, says Arch Nearbrite, is change for a dollar across the counter for things that used to cost fifty cents.

THE FEAR DEAL!
(Milwaukee Sentinel)

THE SLICK SALESMEN of the Fair Deal, from President Truman and Gov. Stevenson down the line, are trying to sell the American people the Fear Deal. They are trying to hawk the shoddy bugaboo that the election of Gen. Eisenhower would mean economic disaster, a depression comparable to that of 1929 and the '30's.

They are peddlers of panic.

From you-have-never-had-it-so-good they have gone over to you-will-never-have-it-so-bad, if Eisenhower is elected. It is a spiteful counsel of despair they are selling, and it is partciularly malicious because it preys on the fears of the old and helpless, seeks to alarm the thrifty and frugal, and to obstruct the hopes and ambitions of the young with the barricade of dread.

They are selling America short.

The kind of talk the slick salesmen of the Fair Deal are spreading, in the flighty wit of Gov. Stevenson, the whistle-stop tirades of Mr. Truman and the inept bellowing of their stooges, is subversive. To overthrow is not the only meaning of subvert. It means also to undermine allegiance and faith.

The Fear Deal mongers are attempting to undermine faith in the limotless possibilities of this country, and we including among its resources the intelligence and vision of its men and women.

Gen. Eisenhower is offering an America of inestimable opportunity to the enterprise of men and women freed from the shackles of a power-drunk administration.

That is the choice before the voters Nov. 4.

Some married men can give a tramp both food and work by handing out his wife's biscuits.

One rule of success is "keep at it"—especially if it applies to the purchase of government bonds.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — As the U. S. A. emerges from the hottest political campaign in 20 years some people may be rubbing their heads and wondering whether we can ever get back to an even keel and pull together as a united nation.

The answer is that, although feelings have run high, the current bitterness nasn't anywhere near approached the mud-slinging of many other notable elections. And out of all of these, with the exception of Lincoln's election ,the nation emerged united and proceeded to forget the name-calling of the campaign.

Take one of the lesser elections of the past—the 1880 campaign when James A. Garfield, Republican, defeated Gen. Winfield Hancock, Democrat. Garfield got smeared for supposedly receiving a $329 dividend from the ill-fated credit mobilizer was accused of stealing bedding from a Southern widow and of refusing to pay a tailor's bill in Troy, N. Y.

The Democrats even forged Garfield's name on a letter proposing the immigration of Chinese to California, while Hancock, in turn, was described by the Chicago Tribune as doing nothing "but eat, drink and enjoy himself sensually."

"CONTINENTAL LIAR"

Hottest campaign of all followed four years later, by which time the Republicans had been in office 24 years, and the Democrats put up Cleveland in an all-out effor to recapture power. The GOP candidate, James G. Blaine, was immediately attacked as tainted by corruption and having "wallowed in spoils like a rhinoceros in an African pool."

Specifically the Democrats charged that he had accepted bribes from the Little Rock and Ft. Smith Railroad in Arkansas, and they also unearthed a letter to a business associate, Warren Fisher, which closed with "kind regards to Mrs. Fisher. Burn this letter."

From this came the Democratic campaign chant:

"Burn this letter! Burn this letter!
Kind regards to Mrs. Fisher."

Also: "Blaine! Blaine! James G. Blaine!
The con-ti-nen-tal liar from the State of Maine."

The Republicans countered with the charge that Cleveland had carried on illicit relations with a 36-year-old widow, Maria Halpin, who bore him an illegitimate child. Cleveland admitted this, countered by stating that he had paid for the child's support. Whereupon the Republicans chanted:

"Ma! Ma! where's my Pa?
Gone to the White House. Ha! Ha! Ha!"

At the height of this mud-slinging which far surpassed any modern campaign, a group of clergymen called on Blaine and accused the Democrats of "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion." Blaine was immediately charged with being anti-Catholic, this tipped the scale and cost him the election.

ANDREW JOHNSON HECKLED

Nearest approach to the attitude of some people toward President Truman today was during the midterm of Andrew Johnson, who took office after Lincoln's assassination. There again, however, the American public was far more vindictive, more intolerant and more bitter than it is today.

Touring the country during the congressional elections in 1866, Johnson was called a "traitor," "renegade," "great apostate." Unlike the children which have heckled Truman, his crowds meant business, and in Indianapolis, Johnson was driven from the platform by an angry mob yelling "we want nothing to do with traitors!", and which tore down his banners and killed several people.

Hatred of Johnson was at white heat because he, a former Democrat, proposed that Southern Civil War leaders be forgiven.

Bitterness against Lincoln during his election campaign was of course worst of all. The Charleston, S. C. Mercury described him as "a horrid looking wretch . . . . sooty, scoundrelly in aspect, a cross between the nutmeg dealer, the horse swapper and the night man . . . he is a lanksided Yankee of the uncleanliest visage and of the dirtiest complexion. Faugh! After him what decent white man would be president."

The Time Is Bound To Come

Old Alcholics Are Being Given New Chance In Workhouse Clinic

By CLIFF MILLER

CLEVELAND —(NEA)— This Fall marks the first anniversary of a civic effort to rehabilitate chronic alcoholics that is unique in the land—the Alcoholic Clinic of Warrensville Workhouse in Cleveland.

Only such clinic ever established as part of a correctional institution, its first year of operation has been watched with keen interest by welfare departments throughout the U. S. and "Results are quite encouraging," says Gilbert Serafini, assistant superintendent.

Dr. Joseph Duffy, of the Western Reserve University faculty, agrees with Serafini. Dr. Duffy is the clinic psychiatrist who tries to guide the chronic drunks and Skid Row bums along the tortuous road back to clean living, clear thinking and ambition to "go right."

Inspired by demands of the Cleveland Bar Association, Welfare Federation, and the late Judge Lewis Drucker, the clinic's rooms opened last October with a $10,000 appropriation from the city. Now, one year later there is almost $4000 left.

* * *

Of 35 alcoholic derelicts accepted as participants for treatment in groups of six to ten at a time, five have been completely rehabilitated. They now form a core of dependable "graduates" who work with the clinic and form the basis of a follow-up program based on treatment by psycho-therapy.

That is the only treatment used. "There is no other effective way," says Serafini. It consists of discussion groups led by Dr. Duffy. The psychiatrist introduces an idea, such as asking one man what he thinks of people who do not salute the flag. Or it can be a question about any other undesirable attitude.

As the participants express their ideas, "they go through a complete personality change," says the clinic's director.

When first opened, Tower Dormitory was regarded suspiciously by prisoners in the Workhouse. Rumors of cold - water treatments and electric shocks discouraged applicants.

* * *

It was then the clinic met its most successful participant.

'Richard was very discouraging at first," admits Serafini. A confirmed alcoholic at 33, veteran of many so-called cures, his early marriage had broken under the strain of his constant drinking. When his wife entered a mental institution and Richard began his rounds of innumerable alcoholics' hospitals, he still drank uncontrollably and wound up with a 360-day sentence for non-support.

At first skeptical, Richard suddenly began to show interest in the psycho-therapy sessions, and began telling his fellow-prisoners about the clinic.

"We owe Richard our acceptance by the inmates," admits Serafini.

When released he returned to weekly sessions, became an Alcoholics Anonymous member. Today he is completely rehabilitated, working as a machinist and as he says, 'Happier than ever before."

* * *

There are doubtful cases, too. Most discouraging in the clinic's files is John, 37, back three times

CLINIC IN A WORKHOUSE: Gilbert Serafini (standing), director of unique Alcoholic Clinic at Warrensville Workhouse in Cleveland, leads a psycho-therapy discussion in a segregated dormitory for participants. Of 159 applicants this year for treatment, only 46 were accepted. Most rejections were because applicant was not a true alcoholic, but thought he'd "enjoy" the treatment.

—once after a mere 24 hours of freedom. A printer, John has difficulty getting a job because of his record. "But we feel he will eventually come out of it," says Serafini.

Participants come from all parts of the country. One, a Texan aged 47, was arrested in Cleveland for intoxication and begged to be sent to the Workhouse. He had a long history of drunkenness and a ruined teaching career behind him. While in the Tower Dormitory, he inherited part of an oil-lease fortune. After his release and return to Texas he inherited the rest of the money. Today he has won his way back in the teaching field. He credits the clinic for his recovery.

"We help men who would get aid in no other way," summarizes Serafini. "In the Workhouse they have time to reflect and seek help. We are here to offer it."

By CLINT DUNATHAN

THE APPEAL — To this newspaper comes a letter from Dr. Morris W. Lambie, formerly of Gladstone, now receiving treatment at Pinecrest Sanatorium, Powers. The letter follows:

"This is a request for information, directed to you because I know of no other likely informant.

"I practiced medicine in Gladstone for over a year before coming here to be temporarily confined with tuberculosis. I developed a strong interest in the Upper Peninsula and am now anxious to learn more about this country than I can from reading your excellent newspaper, which has done a great deal to develop my interest and knowledge.

"I seek a list of books about the Upper Peninsula and the sources from which I might buy or borrow these books. I would be as interested in fiction as in actual history. And I would be particularly interested in literature which views the past and present of the U. P. in terms of its future. I realize that the bibliography I seek will be very small and limited.

"If your newspaper can not supply me with this information, perhaps you will be good enough to suggest some other possible source of information."

* * *

AND THE ANSWER—Dr. Lambie's request for information was referred to Mrs. Nancy Thomas, librarian of Carnegie Public Library in Escanaba, who knows all there is to know about books—and especially those relating to the Upper Peninsula.

Mrs. Thomas is to write Dr. Lambie personally, but the information she presents will be of general interest. Here is the list of books she suggests:

Call It North Country—John Bartlow Martin. Dramatic tales of Upper Peninsula missionaries, fur traders, surveyors and settlers, lumberjacks, copper and iron miners.

Fireweed — Mildred Walker. Heart-touching fiction about a second generation in a U. P. lumber town.

Latchstring Out — Skulda V. Baner. Homey and wholesome remembrances of a Swedish-America girl living in Northern Michigan.

Long Winter Ends—Newton J. Thomas. Tales of Cornish miners and life in the Copper Country.

Loon Feather—Iola Fuller. Novel of Indian life on Mackinac Island in the early 1800's.

Long Ships Passing—Walter Havighurst. Stories of the Great Lakes fleet and their importance to the nation's economy.

Great Lakes—Harlan Hatcher. American Lake Series includes individual books on Lakes Michigan, Huron, Superior, Ontario, Erie. (Books on Lakes Michigan and Superior recommended for Upper Peninsula readers.)

This Ontonagon Country — James K. Jamison. Excellent regional book with much attention to history of that area.

Boom Copper—Angus Murdoch. The boom and bust of the copper mining industry in the Upper Peninsula.

Tall Timber, Holy Old Mackinaw, Iron Brew—Stewart Holbrook. Fact and fiction combined in the Holbrook's always readable style.

Iron Hunter—Chase S. Osborn. An autobiography.

By Cross and Anchor—James K. Jamison. The story of a Jesuit missionary on Lake Superior.

Trouble Shooter, Danny and the Boys—Robert Traver. Tales from the Upper Peninsula written by a Marquette attorney.

White Pine Days on the Tahquamenon—Hulbert. Sensitive stories about life and times of the lumberjacks, written by a contemporary.

Schoolcraft, Longfellow, Hiawatha—Chase S. Osborn and Stellanova Osborn. Fascinating examination of the men and the Indian legends which resulted in the Upper Peninsula's best known book—Hiawatha.

Chippewa Village—W. Vernon Kinietz. Authoritative work on the aboriginal inhabitants of Michigan.

Inga of Porcupine Mine—Caroline R. Stone. Children's story of a little girl's life among the Finnish-Cornish miners.

Among other books of fiction with a U. P. locale are Anderson's "I Married a Logger", Nelson's "Lady Unafraid" and "Bay Mild" by Louis Kintziger of Escanaba.

The Michigan Department of Conservation offers books on Michigan trees, Michigan wildlife sketches, and Michigan lakes and streams.

The Michigan Pioneer and Historical Society collection presents many articles on the Upper Peninsula, and membership in the Delta County Historical Society and the Michigan Historical Society brings the members Michigan History magazine, wherein appear articles on the U. P. often appear.

Investigate Persistent Cough Before Lung Condition Sets In

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

B. H. K. writes "I am suffering from bronchiectasis, but I am told that it is not serious enough for surgery. It is sometimes difficult to breathe. Will you discuss this condition?"

Bronchiectasis is a condition of the lungs in which the small pockets in these organs, which are usually filled with air when a person breathes, are broken down into larger pockets which are partly filled with mucous fluid or other semi-solid material.

When large areas of the lungs are involved and are examined by X-ray by a method which shows up these pockets, they will look much like a bunch of grapes.

Almost any condition, such as repeated attacks of bronchitis, chronic sinus infection, or anything else which leads to a long-lasting cough, may eventually bring on bronchiectasis. Once this condition has arisen, the cough generally persists and often brings up heavy mucous sputum that frequently has a foul odor.

The diagnosis of bronchiectasis can be established by several special examinations, including the taking of an X-ray film and the use of an instrument for looking into the lungs called a bronchoscope.

Bronchiectasis interferes with health and ability to work, and it can produce dangerous complications and even death. It is better to prevent than to treat.

Since it can come from so many different causes, a person who has a long-continued cough, regardless of what he or she thinks is producing it, ought to try to get at the bottom of the trouble early and stop the difficulty before bronchiectasis can have a chance to develop.

The medical treatment of fully developed bronchiectasis has not been highly successful, at least until recently. Now, however, there have been some reports on the use of penicillin—usually given by the inhaling method—which seem promising.

SURGERY SAVES MANY

Penicillin is not a cure-all for bronchiectasis, and it is still uncertain how many will benefit from such treatments.

The other method of treatment which is satisfactory for many of those with bronchiectasis, even when the condition is advanced, is surgery. The part of the lung affected with bronchiectasis can be removed by surgery pretty successfully and this has undoubtedly saved many lives.

For those who are unfortunate enough to have developed an advanced type of bronchiectasis, surgery probably offers the best hope of restoring health, but, of course, the individual circumstances have to be weighed in each instance.

Coyne Trial Opens In Circuit Court Today

Four state witnesses testified this morning in the opening of the Circuit Court case against John C. Coyne Jr. of Escanaba for failure to stop at the scene of an accident and render assistance.

The witnesses were called to the stand by Prosecutor Clyde McGonagle to support the state's charge that in the early morning of July 27, 1952 Coyne "wilfully and knowingly" neglected to stop his car at the scene of the accident and that Coyne "had knowledge that his vehicle caused injury and death" to Thomas Cannon, youthful Gladstone athlete.

Cannon, together with Donald Timler, another Gladstone youth, was killed instantaneously on US-2, 41 near Masonville while hitchhiking a ride into Gladstone.

12 State Witnesses

Counsel for the defense is Atty. Michael O'Hara of Menominee.

The prosecuting attorney told the jury in his opening statement that he intends to call to the stand 12 witnesses on behalf of the people.

The first to testify this morning was Duane Switzer, 18, of Gladstone, one of Cannon's companions on the fatal night. In direct examination he related the night's events which led up to Cannon's presence on the highway at Masonville.

Four boys—Cannon, Timler, Bovin and himself—he said, stopped for a snack at the Wagon Wheel lunch counter near Masonville after Timler's car "threw a rod" near there and stopped operating. Canon and Timler left the lunch room "about 30 seconds" before Bovin and he did, Switzer testified.

When outside the building, Bovin and Switzer were walking toward the highway when Switzer thought he heard someone in back of him call his name. The boys saw no one when they turned in the direction of the call but, Switzer testified, on glancing back at the highway he saw a car pass by, making sparks near its undersurface.

Take Boys Off Highway

Bovin, in his testimony, stated that he said then that Cannon and Timler "got hit" and both boys ran to the highway. They found Timler and Cannon lying on the concrete pavement, he testified, and each of them pulled one of the boys onto the shoulder of the road.

He and Switzer then went back to the Wagon Wheel to call the police, Bovin reported.

After being called to the stand, Dr. Thomas McInerney, county coroner, told the jury his findings on two examinations made on the body of Cannon. The boy's injuries showed, he stated, that he had apparently been the victim of a "violent" blow.

Bovin was followed on the stand by Bonnie Provo, 1201 Tenth Ave. S., one of five passengers in the Coyne car on the morning of July 27.

Informed Of Accident

Coyne and his party left the Swallow Inn in Rapid River shortly after 2 o'clock that morning, she testified, and were on their way back to Escanaba when "the car hit something that gave us quite a jar."

"After that we talked in normal conversation" about what the bump could have been, until we decided to go back and see what it was," she said.

Shortly after Coyne drove the car off the road they learned from passengers in a car that stopped when Coyne flagged it down that "there were two boys dead back there on the road" she said in sobs. The State Police arrived after that, the girl reported.

More state witnesses were expected to be heard after court reconvened this afternoon.

Riot Squelched At Ohio Prison

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Haggard Ohio Penitentiary officials today began transfer of 150 prisoners to Camp Perry on Lake Erie following collapse of a million-dollar prison riot.

The melee brought death to one convict and wounds to four others and a state highway patrolman.

While buses were getting ready for the trip to Camp Perry, prison guards shook down the 1,600 holdout convicts who surrendered late yesterday inside beleaguered Cell blocks G. H. I and K.

The transfer to Camp Perry will be the largest movement of inmates in the prison's history—even larger than the one in 1930 when a fire killed 320. The movement will give Warden Ralph W. Alvis a place to put "hard core" prisoners while broken cell locks are repaired.

Cornell

CORNELL—A dinner party honoring Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson whose marriage took place recently was held Monday evening at Stella's in Gladstone. Twenty-one guests attended. Decorations were centered with a pink and white birthday cake.

Pink and Blue Shower

A pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Leslie Mattonen was held Tuesday evening at the Cornell Town Hall with 50 guests in attendance. Games were followed by a party lunch. Mrs. Mattonen was presented with many pretty gifts.

Gross Indecency Charged Against Four Local Men

Warrants charging gross indecency have been issued on complaint of officers against four men, who have been held in ail and were scheduled for arraignment in justice court this afternoon. They are:

Russell Faber, 32, Escanaba; Richard Steede Jr., 24, Escanaba, Rte. 1; Clinton Priester, 53, Escanaba; and William V. Johnston, 28, Gladstone.

Complaints were made in Justice A. T. Sohlberg's court at Gladstone by Glen S. Leonard, Escanaba safety director, and Trooper Michael J. Lalich of the Gladstone detachment, Michigan State Police.

Complaint was made and the warrant issued against Steede on Nov. 1, and against the other three men on Nov. 3.

Leader Reelected

BOSTON (AP)—Rep. John W. McCormack, House majority leader, easily was re-elected to his seat from the 12th Massachusetts District in yesterday's election. The 12th is the most heavily Democratic congressional district in the state.

Twenty-Year Rule Over White House Broken By Voters

on the outcome in a half dozen or more districts created by reapportionment of voting strength, with only a vote or two likely to separate total Republican and Democratic strength.

Senate Control Close

The Senate contest was just as tight. Republicans had gained a net of one seat and needed to win four of nine undecided races to seat 48 Republicans in addition to Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon, who turned independent and supported Stevenson.

If the GOP won the four outstanding races in which they were leading—in Kentucky, Wyoming, Arizona, and Michigan—they could organize the Senate Jan. 3 with Morse's help.

If Morse, who won't say how he will vote, joined the Democrats that party could organize the Senate with the tie-breaking vote of Vice President Barkley.

Solid South Split

Then the Republicans would have to wait until Sen. Richard M. Nixon of California, swept into office by the Eisenhower landslide, becomes vice president 17 days later to reverse the result.

Stevenson was able to hold together only the tattered remnants of the once-solid South, plus possibly Kentucky and Missouri in the border states, by his campaign of "talking sense to the American people." His running mate, Sen. John Sparkman, helped salvage his home state of Alabama, but not much else.

The Springfield, Ill., Stevenson philosophically conceded the victory to Eisenhower, called on all Americans to "close ranks" and pledged his support to the winner.

Eisenhower, wildly cheered when he appeared in a New York hotel ballroom, matched his opponent's unity plea, said it was "a day of dedication rather than triumph" and pledged that he never will give "short weight" to his responsibilities in Washington.

Eisenhower carried two states the Republicans haven't been able to capture since 1924, Massachusetts and Rhode Island. He won or was out in front in 15 states where the Republicans haven't had a presidential victory since 1928 — Arizona, California, Florida, Illinois, Idaho, Minnesota, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, and Washington.

Early Rooter Loses

But his landslide wasn't quite as widespread as Hoover's, since Eisenhower couldn't break into West Virginia, Kentucky and North Carolina as the former president did in 1928.

In some respects, Eisenhower's was more of a personal than a party victory. Although he helped elect Republican administrations in many states, there was tough sledding for the GOP in Senate and House battles and gubernatorial races.

The general's friend and one of his earliest presidential rooters, Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., conceded defeat by his Democratic opponent, Rep. John F. Kennedy in the Massachusetts senatorial Race. Republican Sen. James P Kem of Missouri went down to defeat and Sen. Harry Cain of Washington was trailing.

Charles Taft Beaten

In Ohio, Democratic Gov. Frank Lausche won going away from Charles Taft, brother of the senator, despite Eisenhower's hefty majority over Stevenson in the state.

Eisenhower's surge helped Sens. Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin and William E. Jenner of Indiana get reelected. Both were prime targets for Democratic attacks in the campaign.

The country never has faced exactly the situation now confronting it, with the outgoing President technically responsible for submitting a budget to Congress and for outlining the nation's problems in a State of the Union message only a couple of weeks before his successor takes office.

Cabinet Cleanup Sure

Domestically, Eisenhower's victory ending the era of the New Deal and the "Fair Deal" means a clean sweep of the Truman Cabinet and many other high officials.

But actual immediate shifts in government personnel may be limited to only about 2,000 jobs which are open to presidential change. Hundreds of thousands of government employes are under civil service and—barring some change in law by Congress—will continue to hold their present or comparable jobs.

There is only conjecture about Eisenhower's cabinet. The President-elect is surrounded by a number of men he might want to enlist in high federal office.

Job For Dewey?

Among these are Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York; Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire; GOP National Chairman Arthur Summerfield; John Foster Dulles, foreign affairs adviser; Sens. Frank Carlson of Kansas, Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. of Massachusetts, Fred Seaton of Nebraska and James Duff of Pennsylvania.

Eisenhower's congressional leaders are likely to be Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Rep. Joseph Martin of Massachusetts.

Whatever role Taft chooses to assume in the Senate, his campaign activities in behalf of Eisenhower make it as certain as anything in politics that he will be the real leader of the Republican wing in that body.

Ohioan Has Prestige

Although Lodge — who may not return—and some others have tried to depose Taft in the past, they now may find themselves in a position where they will be forced to work with the Ohio senator because of the boost Taft gave Eisenhower in the campaign.

As the vice president-elect, Nixon will be replaced in the Senate by an appointee of Republican Gov. Earl Warren of California.

The re-election of McCarthy is likely to bring a new surge in the hunt for the Communists and Red sympathizers that Eisenhower promised to clean out of government. However, Eisenhower made it clear in the campaign he doesn't subscribe to all of McCarthy's methods.

Defeat On Record

The party will have two titular leaders in President Truman, who stepped aside voluntarily, and Stevenson, whose original reluctance to run against Eisenhower resolved into a fighting fervor for the Democratic party as the campaign wore on.

Whether Stevenson will try again in 1956 — or ever — remains to be seen. He controls the party machinery through his hand-picked National Committee Chairman, Stephen Mitchell. Mitchell said Stevenson had become "a leader of national stature and we will hear more from him."

But the Illinois governor's strategists have only defeat on their national record and the Democrats may well turn to a new group of leaders in the months to come.

McCarthy Wins, Thanks Voters

APPLETON, Wis. (AP) — Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis) thanked Wisconsin for its "vote of confidence" and asserted that "the real task of the Republican party now begins."

McCarthy, in his bid for re-election, led Democrat Thomas E. Fairchild 419,376 votes to 292,873 with 1,857 of Wisconsin's 3,225 reporting.

In a prepared statement McCarthy said:

"I am deeply grateful to the people of Wisconsin for their vote of confidence.

"The election of Gen. Eisenhower, and most probably a Republican Senate and House, more than justifies my faith in the intelligence of the American people. This is a new day for America. The real task of the Republican party now begins.

"We must go forward cautiously, but firmly, to rebuild America to that position of mental, moral and political leadership which we once held, and again command the respect of the world.

"We must build a prosperity upon peace—not upon war. We must be careful to maintain whatever social advances have been made in the last 20 years—keeping in mind that there have been many good Democrats and some good Democratic ideas.

"As we supplant the Truman administration, it must be done without bitterness and rancor. We can—must and will recreate a government of, by and for ALL the people."

Secret Service Takes Over Gen. Eisenhower

NEW YORK (AP)— U. S. Secret Service agents took over protection of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower early today shortly after his election as president was assured.

A group of agents had been standing by at the general's campaign headquarters in the Commodore Hotel, while the election returns were being tabulated around the country.

Once the outcome became apparent, the agents moved into the corridor to guard Eisenhower's third floor suite and accompanied him when he left for his Columbia University residence.

Foe Of Sen. McCarthy Loses In Connecticut

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Connecticut voters, turning out in record numbers, gave the state's eight electoral votes to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower by a landslide majority.

The sweep sent two Republicans to the Senate, elected five Republican representatives and gave the G.O.P. complete control of the legislature.

Wall Street

By RADER WINGET

NEW YORK (AP)—A post-election boom swept through the stock market today as Eisenhower chalked up a record high popular vote.

After the initial buying rush, prices backed away from their best and trading became relatively quiet.

Gains extended out to around 5 points at their top when buying fever was at peak pitch.

Doing best were oils, motors, steels, non-ferrous metals, chemicals, railroads, utilities, and radio-televisions.

Gainers were General Motors, Chrysler, Bethlehem Steel, Cities Service, Standard Oil N. J., General Electric, Goodyear, Boeing, National Distillers, and Radio Corp.

Democrats Annex All The Offices In Delta County

throughout the county, with some of the election boards in Gladstone continuing to count after 7 a.m. today. Most of the election boards in the county had completed their tallies several hours earlier.

In Escanaba it was reported by City Clerk George Harvey that approximately 7,346 ballots had been cast, or about 87 per cent of the total registration of 8,387.

Many Split Tickets

Next to Atty Chapekis, the Democrats' candidate for prosecuting attorne, Gov. G. Mennen Williams ran second in vote-getting popularity, polling 8185.

Delta county's continued alignment with the Democratic party was accompanied by many split and mixed ballots. Voters who gave Eisenhower a majority in the county switched back and forth among the candidates at the county level.

Chapekis received the benefit of several hundred "independent" votes to win top spot on the Democratic ticket.

Made Clean Sweep

The defeat of Mary Constantineau in her bid for reelection to the office of county clerk and register of deed removed the Republican party's only representative in the Court House.

Miss Constantineau's election two years ago had broken an 18-year Democratic hold on county offices. Yesterday's election, on the basis of unofficial returns, put the county back on the Democratic side of the ledger so far as local officers is concerned.

Republicans had only Eisenhower's majority vote in the county as evidence of local victory for their party.

Medical Unity Comes To NATO

PARIS (AP)—The 14 NATO nations have set out on an ambitious program of standardizing their medical equipment and training.

Looking toward the possibility of another world war, their aim is to make the military medical supplies of each nation alike. Thus, a British stretcher would fit in an American ambulance and a Turkish needle would fit on a French syringe. They don't now.

The same thing would be done in training techniques. The Danish elbow lift method of resuscitation, for example, would be taught all military medical officers, nurses and corpsmen of all 14 countries. It is rated as the best method today and has been widely adopted in the United States.

No target has been set for complete standardization. In fact, Capt. Cecil Coggins of the U. S. Navy said in an interview that it would be a gradual process taking two to three years.

The important thing is that the military medical chiefs of 11 of the 14 nations already have agreed, in principle, on the plan.

Rules Eased On Passports

WASHINGTON—Several European countries recently have applied international scissors to travel-entangling red tape. They are curtailing the need for passports.

Most notable example this year, observes the National Geographic Society, is the action of Greece and Turkey, ancient enemies now allied in a common cause. No longer do Greeks or Turks require passports to cross their nations' mutual borders.

Another outstanding ending of restrictions has been achieved by Denmark, Norway, Sweden, and Finland. These nations, in the shadow of the Iron Curtain, have abandoned passports for mutual travel.

Many Abandon Visa

A Swede, for example, now can go to Finland and Denmark without his passport, and no entry or exit stamps are needed by a Dane traveling in Norway and Sweden.

Numerous other countries, notably in Western Europe, have abandoned visas for temporary travel, but passports are still necessary. A visa amounts to a permit to enter and remain in a state. It is stamped in a passport by a consular office before the traveler reaches the nation issuing the visa.

Passports themselves are of ancient origin. In their best sense they serve to protect and identify strangers in foreign lands. In another sense they can be used by governments to regulate travel.

In ancient Rome a bearer of Caesar's tractorium, the passport of its day, was entitled to special courtesies along the far-flung Roman roads. He could expect post horses at relay stations, rooms at inns and, when necessary, armed guards. The same courtesies were extended, to a degree, to bearers of the conducti nundinarum of the Holy Roman Emperors.

Passports attained a more unpleasant aspect later. They were found useful to control displaced persons. Instead of facilitating travel they could be used to bar entry to countries. In some police states they became weapons of the government, to be shown on demand. Revocation was a serious penalty.

Use of passports greatly increased during World War I. They were essential for international travel, and they have remained so, with the few exceptions of present relaxed regulations between neighboring states.

In addition to the abandonment of passports for some European travel, they are not necessary to cross open borders such as that between the United States and Canada. Several Latin American nations have waived passport regulations, although some require travel cards as substitutes. Other Western Hemisphere states retain stringent regulation.

Woman, 74, Walks Into Gov. Williams' Auto

DETROIT (AP)—Mrs. Emma C. Szelle, 74, nursed a bruised elbow but no resentment after walking into the side of Governor Williams car.

Mrs. Szelle told police she failed to see the car, which was traveling between 20 and 25 miles an hours on a Detroit street Sunday. Williams, on a campaign tour, had his driver stop immediately and went back to be sure Mrs. Szelle was not badly hurt.

"I'm going to write that young man a letter," Mrs. Szelle announced after the mishap, "but I'm still going to vote for him. I'm a Democrat."

North Manitou Blaze Checked

(By The Associated Press)

Michigan's forest fire situation appeared well under control today, the State Conservation Department reported.

Milton Bergman, of the department's Field Administration division, said all department fire fighters were back at their home stations after a hectic session of shifts over the weekend.

"The rain over the weekend helped a lot," Bergman said. "It looks now as if we're on top of everything that has been reported."

The last bad blaze reported was on North Manitou Island in Lake Michigan, some 10 miles off the Leelanau Peninsula.

Bergman said a crew of 35 men were rushed late Monday to reinforce a skeleton crew of fire fighters on the uninhabited island.

Some concern was expressed about a valuable stand of second growth timber, the island deer herd and unoccupied summer cottages.

About 80 acres of woodland were burned over before the fire was checked, Bergman said.

America's New First Lady

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

WASHINGTON —(NEA)— What manner of woman is the nation's new First Lady?

One thing is sure. Whatever Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower was, did, liked or disliked before, it's going to be a lot different for her for the next four years at least.

Mamie Eisenhower has probably had as good a preparation for the job as any one woman can get. But it happens that being First Lady of the Land involves a combination of responsibilities and duties for which there is only one adequate training course: the job itself.

Caesar's wife had it easy by comparison. Cornelia's job description didn't specify keeping above suspicion in an age of television, gossip columnists, women's magazines, the League of Women Voters and the New York Dress Institute which takes it upon itself to select the country's ten best dressed women. A woman in high position today can come under suspicion if her dress happens to be a half-inch longer than yesterday's accepted length.

Today's First Lady is expected to be the living symbol of motherhood and wifehood to all the Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts, Brownies and Job's Daughters. Yet about noon each day she must also become the leading hostess or most honored guest in a town which has the fastest party pace in the country.

• • •

No Public Speaker

It's not easy to be your sweet same self under these conditions. Take everything that's been written about Mamie —and there has been plenty—and you can start from there guessing as to what kind of a First Lady she will be.

For instance, Mrs. Eisenhower abhors the thought of making a public speech. When it comes to facing a crowd, smiling, waving and saying hello, she's the best. But the longest actual speech she has ever made contained 20 words.

For better or for worse the First Lady has to make some public speeches — without her husband at her side. Mrs. Truman probably abhorred the idea more than Mamie does now. But Mrs. Truman, with all her Missouri independence and distaste for the public platform, quickly had to hire herself a public speaking teacher and learn the rudimentary tricks of the trade.

Mrs. Ike has always claimed that her principal hobby is taking eare of Ike—to the extent, it has been reported, of buying his clothes. That's something Mrs. Truman said she did, too.

Unfortunately, the President of the United States is well insulated against a devoted, helping wife by Secret Service men, staff physicians, personal secretaries, aides, assistants and a fantastic burden of work.

• • •

It Will Be Different

The answer? The First Lady finds herself another main hobby.

Stated hobbies two, three and four for Mamie are lying in bed reading mystery books, shopping around town for bargains and redecorating.

The simple administrative chores of running the White House preclude the time for reading in bed. They will also probably cut into her favorite habit of a leisurely breakfast of fruit juice, toast and coffee followed by reading the papers and writing her letters—all in bed.

Bargain hunting, another of Mrs. Truman's pre-First Lady favorites, is denied the President's wife. Haggling over the price of a bit of feminine finery is robbed of its charm with two Secret Service men and a fast-growing crowd of rubbernecks monitoring the transaction.

MAMIE AND IKE: She's always claimed her principal hobby is taking care of her husband. She'll have lots of help now.

• • •

That leaves redecorating. But the only trouble there is that it's against the law to do any redecorating in the White House without having nearly every idea approved first through channels by the Commission of Fine Arts.

So the First Lady can't have a hobby. But isn't there any fun being the wife of the most important man in the world? The answer to that is yes, if what you call fun happens to coincide with the rigid dictates of the job, like it did for Mrs. Roosevelt, for instance.

Fortunately for Mamie Eisenhower, and in spite of the above mentioned somewhat unpleasant adjustments she is going to have to make in her new life, she has real talent for, and takes great pleasure in, much of the routine which will be hers at least until 1956 if she and Ike survive the strain.

• • •

She Likes People

Basically, Mrs. Ike is a gregarious person. She loves being surrounded by good friends. She enjoys meeting new people. She sparkles and enthuses in the middle of a gay throng. Small chitchat and exchanging the latest gags with the girls can keep her enchanted for hours. She loves long afternoons of bridge and canasta.

• • •

White House protocol will limit and take some of the gay edge off of those activities for Mamie. She admits complete ignorance of "heavy" subjects like economics or politics. And a good share of White House company will be persons who seek a more intellectual brand of conversation.

Also, a First Lady is so busy she has to devote less time to real old friends than to visiting delegates from the Federation of Women's Clubs, for example.

But Mamie has proved on many Army posts, as well as in Washington and Paris, that she can take those adjustments in her social life in stride, still keep the affection and loyalty of her old friends, and continue to enjoy life.

Petting Is A Sure Way To Lose Boys' Respect

By Elizabeth B. Hurlock, Ph.D.

Does a girl have to pet to be popular? And, should she pet just because other girls in her group do? That is the problem facing this young teenager:

(Q) "I am only 13 but I have already run into boy problems. My friends are boy crazy and resent that I won't go on petting parties. I think I am too young. One by one, my friends are dropping me. My parents have consented to my dating but I don't think they would like me to go to these parties. What shall I do?"

(A) Do just what you are doing. Don't go to petting parties just to be in vogue. Buying popularity is cheap. In time, you'll win the popularity you desire by following the tactics you are now using.

It's natural for girls to be boy-crazy in their early teens. But if you're interested in boys only as friends, it's silly to pretend differently.

I'm sure your parents would not like you to attend these parties. I question whether the parents of your friends know about them or approve of them. Few parents do.

Your friends are insincere if they drop you for so slight a reason. If, however, you are self-righteous and show your disapproval, then they might have some cause.

Boys soon lose respect for girls who are willing to pet with anyone. Keep on as you are now doing. It will pay you in the long run.

If you have a personal problem, write Elizabeth Hurlock in care of this newspaper.

TEEN TALK

BY VIVIAN BROWN

That first year in a new school can be a gay or ghastly experience. It all depends on you.

If you start out on the right foot, school days should be pleasant. But if you are shy or sloppy or prefer to be sophisticated and snobbish, attitudes which discourage others from seeking your company, your school days may be dreary.

It is easy to get along with new acquaintances, and easy, too, to weed out undesirables so that new friendships can be made Keep in mind these pointers which might make school days happier:

1. Be pleasant. A smile is as big as a handclasp when you are making new friends. A dour looking face will discourage others from becoming friendly. You needn't, of course, grin all the time in idiotic fashion to impress others that you are good humored. Situations might occur to challenge your disposition. Try to stay on the bright side of the ledger.

2. Be Helpful. If a school friend has a problem and asks your advice, don't reply with a "who-me?" attitude. Even if it taxes your time or energy, take an interest in those who seek help. Don't limit your good counseling to favorites.

3. Be a good sport. If you are Miss Moneybags and have a bigger allowance than others in your group, don't try to impress your less fortunate school mates with your wealth.

4. Be congenial. When invited to a party, don't act prudish. When games are played cooperate with the group even if you were bored with that type of entertainment years ago. If you aren't having a good time it is better to go home than spoil the fun of others.

5. Be energetic. Even when studies seem a bore don't inflict your lassitude on your chums. Nobody wants to sympathize with a girl who can't take it. Everybody has his own job to do, so if you must study hard to keep up with bright classmates, take it in stride.

6. Be cooperative. If you are on a committee, do your share of the work. There can be no team work if everyone acts like a general. Take your orders from the committee head, and do the best job possible. If you do an effective job as a committee worker, perhaps your co-workers will seek you to head a future enterprise.

7. Be kind. Whenever you think of gossiping about a school chum, ask yourself how you would feel if the same news was circulating about you. Often, too, school gossip can snowball until a minor incident is made to sound like a major tragedy.

8. Be tactful. Rude retorts to those you feel superior to are unnecessary and will put you in the snob class. Sometimes it turns out that the girl you haven't made a fair estimate of becomes a class leader, and you'll be left holding the bag when other classmates rally round her.

9. Be friendly. Go out of your way to do something nice for a school chum, occasionally. An invitation to your home is a nice gesture to a new friend or a lonely classmate.

10. Be fair. If you are called upon to take sides in an argument, beg off on the grounds that three's a fight. If a matter of principle is involved, however, do not hesitate to state your views, but try not to be arrogant.

If you've been spoiled by your family it will be difficult at first to get used to the idea that you are supposed to please others. Once you've tried, however, you'll be thrilled with the happiness you've brought to some less fortunate friend.

AFTER seeing some of the decollete the girls wear, I've decided the only thing that holds up some strapless formals is a city ordinance. All we have to talk about tonight though is the bare arm look in new blouses at Gartners. Fashioned of a lovely nylon weave, the very simple cut of these darlings responds nicely to jewelry or a nosegay; colors are black, pink, white and blue. A long sleeved cotton blouse by Petti sports double buttons at the cuff, gay peasant braid down the front. In wool jersey, Gartner's offer a new Blousemaker shirt with bat wing sleeves and a deep circular yolk; white on green or red on black. All three of these blouses I've described are only $5.95 each! You'll find them tops with any skirt.

* This line is set in the Bell Gothic type used in your directory. Special tests have shown that, although it is smaller than the others, Bell Gothic is easier to read.

Here's the answer:

Abbreviation makes it possible to keep most listings confined to one line. Two-line listings would double the size of your directory and double costs.

Paper thickness is another economy point. It must withstand tough usage but also be thin to keep directories compact. After careful tests an ideal paper for the purpose was found.

Size of type makes a difference in economy too. But some small type is difficult to read. Thus a special type designed for easy readability is used.

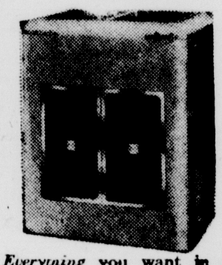

Efficiency means a good deal more than just finding a more convenient way of doing things. To your telephone company it means providing the very best in service at the lowest possible cost to the subscriber. Or saying it another way it means—

Schoolcraft County Goes Republican In Heavy Vote Tuesday

On the basis of nearly complete returns early this morning Schoolcraft County swept into the Republican column, giving majorities to the national, legislative and all of the state ticket except the office of governor.

Missing from the state totals are Manistique's largest and preponderately Republican fourth precinct where 858 votes were cast. Fourth precinct returns were not expected until some time this forenoon.

Also missing was Manistique's second precinct and Inwood township.

Final returns from the county's 13 precincts, it is expected, will give majorities to all Republican office seekers, considering the heavy Republican vote predicted in the fourth precinct of Manistique.

Eleven precincts in the presidential race reported unofficially as follows: Eisenhower-Nixon, 1,618; Stevenson-Sparkman, 1,326.

Ten precincts for state and legislative offices gave the following totals:

Governor—Alger, 1189; Williams, 1208.

Lieutenant governor — Raid, 1199; Connolly, 1096.

Secretary of state — Cleary, 1221; McAllister, 1055.

Attorney general — Millard, 1214; Damm, 1052.

State treasurer — Brake, 1214; Johnson, 1059.

Auditor general—Martin, 1233; Baker, 1054.

U. S. Senator, full term—Potter, 1304; Moody, 1034.

U. S. Senator, vacancy — Potter, 1263; Moody, 976.

Congressman, 11th district — Knox, 1194; Brown, 1080.

State senator, 30th district — Ellsworth, 1250; Phillips, 951.

Representative, Alger district—Wood, 1240; Kelly, 1100.

On the non-partisan ticket, nine precincts reporting, Clark J. Adams, incumbent, led county voting with a total of 665. Charles H. King received 541 and Morton A. Eden 157.

Schoolcraft County voters, with eight precincts reporting, approved proposal 1 and 3 by large majorities and turned thumbs down on No. 2 by an overwhelming majority. The unofficial totals in the eight precincts follows:

No. 1—yes, 1116; no, 369.
No. 2—yes, 302; no 1265.
No. 3—yes, 1108; no, 398.

Football Group To Change Name

Members of the Manistique Quarterback Club, meeting in regular session Monday night, decided to change the organization's name because the club is interested in the promotion of all sports activities, not just football.

The club decided to conduct a contest in selecting a new name, and to offer a prize of $5 to the winner. In the event of a tie for winning name, successful contestants will be required to present an explanation of why each selected the name he did in order to break the deadlock.

Contestants are advised to keep in mind the nature of the club in suggesting names, and to remember that the organization supports and encourages all sports, not just football, John Matthews, president said. Entries should be mailed to Matthews.

The club also approved its new constitution and by-laws and proceeded to elect a vice president and three directors under new constitutional provisions.

Elected were: Vice president, Bud Malloy; director three years, Arthur Allen; director two years, Connie Graphos; director one year, T H. Reque.

Members also voted to extend their appreciation to drivers of cars who took Manistique high school football players to the recent Lions-Packers game in Green Bay.

A motion picture on offensive and defensive football also was included on the program.

Hewitt Leads In Sheriff Vote

Piling up a margin of 1437 to 982 for his opponent, Republican John M. Hewitt apparently defeated Democrat Floyd Sample for sheriff of Schoolcraft County yesterday, on the basis of unofficial counts in 10 out of 13 precincts.

The missing precincts, reports from which were not expected until this forenoon, were Inwood township and city precincts two and four. In the fourth, normally preponderately Republican, a total of 858 votes were cast, the heaviest recorded in that ward.

WED RECENTLY—Miss Madelyn Fountain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fountain, of Cooks, became the bride of Wilbur Silkworth, son of Mrs. Gladys Roberts, of Cooks, recently at a ceremony performed in St. Francis de Sales Church. The newlyweds are making their home in Cooks. (Linderoth Photo)

Speaker will be Dr. Max P. Allen, director of instruction and in-service education at Northern Michigan College of Education, Marquette, who will discuss the topic, "Improving Our Local Government".

Dr. Allen received his Phd. degree fromm the University of Indiana, with a major in history. He has, through study and interest, made a specialty of local government. He is an elected member of the Marquette County Board of Supervisors.

Final lecture in the series will be "Politics, Elections and Citizen Participation", to be presented Nov. 14 by Dr. Samuel Eldersveld, assistant professor of political science at the University of Michigan.

The series is being sponsored by the University of Michigan Extension Service in coperation with Manistique high school.

Renew Effort On Rescue Boat

A renewed effort by the Garden Peninsula Lions Club to get the United States Coast Guard Service to assign a cutter to the Manistique area was taken by the club at a recent meeting.

In a resolution passed at the session, Lions again agreed to direct attention of Coast Guard officials to the Lake Michigan hazards in the Manistique area and requested that further consideration be given to stationing a cutter at or near Manistique.

A similiar effort by the club about a year ago was rejected by the Coast Guard.

Supporting their request for more protection in this section of Lake Michigan, club members pointed to an incident which occurred in the area several weeks ago.

At that time a 54-foot diesel boat, with four persons aboard, drifted from Point Detour near Fairport to a point near Seul Choix before being rescued by the commercial fishing boat, the M and R, from Fairport. The diesel had been adrift approximately 16 hours. Both boats are owned by the Casey Brothers, of Fairport.

The M and R commenced a search for the missing diesel about 11:04 p. m. Oct. 3, and at the time a call was put through to the Coast Guard rescue boat failed to leave Washington Island until 1:40 the next morning because of difficulty in assembling a crew, Lions stated, and did not reach Manistique until 8 a. m., about five hours later than the M and R.

In again urging that more protection be offered shipping in this area, particularly commercial fishing craft, the Garden Peninsula Lions strongly urged that a cutter or rescue boat be stationed permanently in the Manistique area.

Invite Women To World Day

All persons interested in building lasting peace are invited to attend the World Community Day program at the Church of the Redeemer, Presbyterian, at 3 p. m. Friday, it is announced by Mrs. G. Leslie Bouschor, chairman.

Purpose of the program, the chairman pointed out, is for women to think together on the world community in terms of today's problems, define Christian responsibility in international relations, and understand and support the United Nations organization through which all mankind can work together toward a just and lasting world peace.

"Feeling that material gifts which meet basic needs are a part of the foundations of peace," Mrs. Bouschor said, "we will share our abundance with the needs of children in less fortunate lands. Women will bring 'Packets of Peace, new and used clothing for babies, children and adults. These gifts will be dedicated, packed and be sent on their way to the corners of the world where the need is greatest. Part of the offering will provide medicines and vitamins which will help to build strong bodies; a part will support the Christian Women's Action Program for Lasting Peace."

More than 1,800 United Church Women Councils throughout the country will participate in the World Community Day program.

Folks who feel that basketball already has too many rules will not be happy to learn that several more have been added this year The most important involves free throws and reads as follows: "If a foul is called on a player, the player who is fouled, not in the act of shooting, will be awarded one free throw. However, if he misses this free throw, he will be given an additional free throw."

• • • • •

It is easy to see the bearing that new rule will have on basketball scoring It increases the value of a foul on the team which has possession of the ball In effect, it gives a fouled player two chances at the free throw line You can bet that coaches will be devoting more and more of their practice sessions to the art of free throw shooting One phase of the game which will suffer by the ruling is the "defensive press" which is used by many high school quints.

• • • • •

Another major rule change is as follows: "In the last three minutes of the fourth quarter, or an extra period, all fouls including those when a player is in the act of shooting, are penalized by two free throws."

• • • • •

The third major rule change: "The team shooting at the basket has a right to tap in the ball if it is on the rim. The defensive team can not tap the ball out of play. This rule is applicable in reference to a field goal, not a free throw."

• • • • •

Minor rule changes this year: "By mutual agreement, teams may use a rubber-covered basketball. The officials have the right to refuse a substitute coming on the floor if the ball is ready for play and the officials think that it may delay the game. An intentional foul at any time is penalized by two shots."

Packers Seeking Best Record In Five Years

GREEN BAY, Wis.—The Green Bay Packers will attempt to post their best "won" record in five years when they battle their traditional enemy, the Chicago Bears, in Chicago's Wrigley field Sunday afternoon.

The Packers, who like the Bears will enter the game with 3-3 marks in the tight National conference championship race, will be seeking their fourth win. No. 4 would give the Packers their best record since 1947 when they came up with 6-5-1 totals.

Since '47 the Packers have been well below .500. In 1948, the record was 3-9; in 1949, 2-10; in 1950, 3-9; and in 1951, 3-9 again.

The Packers figure they've got a break coming from the law of averages, too. They haven't been able to beat the Bears in Chicago since 1941 when the greatest of Bruin machines was upset, 16 to 14. The Bears won every Packer-Bear game in Wrigley field since 11 in a row, including the division playoff in 1941.

The Bears will enter Sunday's fray with a big prize in their rear pockets—a 20-17 victory previously unbeaten over the San Francisco Forty Niners. The Packers are also fresh from victory—a 12-10 verdict over the Philadelphia Eagles.

Packer coach Gene Ronzani is emphasizing offense this week, since the Bays were able to score only one TD last Sunday under their own offensive power, the score coming on a 21-yard pass from Babe Parilli to Breezy Reid. The winning touchdown came on a blocked punt by Deral Teteak and the scoopup and run by defensive end John Martinkovic.

A crowd of more than 45,000 is expected for Sunday's 68th meeting between the Packers and Bears.

Illinois Guard Named Lineman Of The Week

NEW YORK (AP) — A guard switched to tackle—Bob Lenzini of Illinois—won the Lineman of the Week award today.

Lenzini, a 198-pounder from Waukegan, took top honors in the weekly Associated Press poll for his sterling defensive work last Saturday as the Illini upset Michigan, 22-13.

Lenzini charges low and hard. He pulled is way through the Michigan line to smear Michigan fullback Dick Balzhiser without gain on the Illini nine. Coming on third down it was the play that broke up Michigan's last threat.

Sports Roundup

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Fred Saigh and Bill Veeck, rival owners of the St. Louis Cards and Browns, respectively, haven't seen eye to eye on many things during the past season. Both, however, are in perfect accord on one point. They believe their teams should share in the television receipts from games on the road.

"My Browns provide half the cast in a ball game that is televised in any American League city they visit," Veeck contends. "Therefore, the St. Louis club should receive its share of the fee that is paid the home club for the 'show.'"

Saigh already has announced he will not allow his Card games to be televised in New York and Brooklyn next year unless his club shares in the television fees received by the Giants and Dodgers.

At total of 35 major league players are due to leave military service in time to join their respective clubs for the 1953 season. The Boston Braves will have a new battery in pitcher Johnny Antonelli and catcher Del Crandall. Other rominent returnees include pitchers Ed Ford, Yankees; Bill MacDonald, Pirates; Dick Weik, Indians; Ray Herbert, Tigers; infielders Danny O'Connell, Pirates; Preston Ward, Cubs; Owen Friend, Browns; and outfielder Dick Kokos, Browns.

Is Tommy Byrne, recently acquired by the Chicago White Sox in a trade with the Browns, en route to Washington? Senator manager Bucky Harris, who tutored Byrne in New York as a rookie, is anxious to land the veteran lefthander and has dangled outfielder Gil Coan as bait. The addition of Byrne gives the White Sox six southpaws whereas the Nats finished the 1952 season with nary a one. Of Washington's 78 wins, only four were registered by a lefthander last year. Lou Sleater, and he has been shipped to Chattanooga.

Did-You-Know-That Department—On June 27, 1912, five straight Boston batters reached base against Brooklyn on four hits and a walk, in the ninth inning, but the Braves failed to score. Brooklyn won, 9-8. Here is how it happened. McDonald, first up, went out Campbell singled and was caught off first, Rucker to Daubert. Sweeney and Kirke singled. Titus walked. Houser was credited with a single when his bounder hit Titus on the baselines. No runs, four hits, one walk, three left.

1. What player did not hit into a single double play in an entire season but did so in his first time at bat the following year?

2. What regular went through an entire season without hitting a home run but rapped a four-bagger his first time up the following year?

Answers:

1. Augie Galan, Chicago Cubs. 1935-1936.

2. Dick Porter, Cleveland Indians, 1933-1934.

Five Lettermen Back On Braves Cage Squad

GLADSTONE—A squad of 15 varsity basketball candidates is drilling for the coming season under Coach Eldon Keil as the Gladstone Braves eye their 1952-53 opening date Nov. 25 against Bark River.

Included in the list are five returning veterans from last season's cage team. Letterman back are Capt. Martin Becker, Tom Moreau, Jerry Norick, Norbert Butler and Duane Peterson.

Lost to the squad is Lowell LaPlant, one of last season's regulars. LaPlant suffered a knee injury in the recent football season and was advised by Coach Keil not to play basketball this season.

A total squad turnout of 45 candidates was reported early this week. Thirty candidates have been working out under reserve coach Don Pfotenhauer.

Varsity coach Keil will cut his squad of 15 players to 10 by Monday, he reported today.

The Braves will have height this year and with most of last season's squad available will be an experienced team.

Seek Norway Stars For Iron Mountain Ski Jump

IRON MOUNTAIN—If the hopes of officials of the Kiwanis Ski club are realized, the star-studded roster of jumpers competing in the North American Jumping championship meet at giant Pine Mountain next February, will include the name of Norway's four top-drawer skiers.

Recently, the Norwegian Ski association revealed that several of its best jumping and downhill skiers would be performing on American jumping hill and downhill slopes this winter.

Among the Norse stars making the major jumping circuits of the U. S. this year are Arnfinn Bergmann, Arne Hoel, Hans Bjornstad and Kjell Knarvik.

Bergmann, former resident of Revelstoke, B. C., who has since returned to his native land, was the winner of the special jumping in last winter's Olympic Games. In addition, Bergmann also captured the famous 1952 Holmenkollen jumping title.

Hans Bjornstad leaped to the 1950 world's championship at Lake Placid, N. Y. Hotel is another crack Norwegian skier, and placed fifth in the special jumping during last year's Olympic meet.

The North American Championship jumping meet will be held on Saturday, Feb. 28. The Kiwanis Ski club meet will be held the following day, Sunday, March 1.

Kiwanis officials also predicted that two German skiers and two Finnish skiers, among them Matti Pietikainen, pint-sized ace who has competed at Pine Mountain before, will also compete in meets here this season The quartet is being sponsored by the Central U. S. Ski Association.

Baseball Scouts Are Accused By School Official

DETROIT (AP)—A Michigan high school administrator claims that scouts from professional baseball clubs are a bigger menace to prep students than college football recruiters.

The administrator is Guy Houston, deputy principal at Flint Northern. He made his claim before a meeting of the Michigan Football Writers Association here yesterday.

Houston said that he knew of no specific instance in which college recruiting had disturbed either the career or studies of athletes.

"Most of the attention they (high school players) get (from colleges) comes after their senior year," he said. "But the baseball scouts, they are around all the time."

Kenan Stadium, the University of North Carolina's home football stadium, seats 43,900 people.

ALL-ROUND MAN—Milt Campbell goes all the way—and then some—as Plainfield, N. J., High's fullback, was runner-up in the Olympic Games' decathlon. The six-foot three-inch 18-year-old pole vaults 11 feet 1 inch, puts the shot 45 feet 8.64 inches, runs the high hurdles in 14 flat, high jumps six feet five, among numerous other things. (NEA)

Michigan State Heavy Favorite Over Indiana

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING (AP)—Even the most hepped-up Hoosier would have to concede that Michigan State is a top-heavy favorite to beat Indiana at Bloomington Saturday.

The question on this football game is not so much "Who" as "How much."

The Spartans will be shooting for their 22nd straight and ninth win over a Big Ten team since the streak started back in 1950.

Only Two Wins

Indiana, with losses to Ohio State, Michigan, Northwestern and Pittsburgh, has beaten only Iowa and Temple so far this season.

It would seem far-stretched that Indiana could be expected to upset the top-rated team in the country.

Far-fetched to everyone, that is, but Michigan State Coach Biggie Munn.

Munn, a man with a long memory, has warned his Spartans that Indiana can be unpredictable.

Munn remembers last year when Michigan State went to Bloomington after walloping Notre Dame 35-0. Indiana had been beaten three straight Saturdays and was a 19-point underdog.

Carey Counted

Michigan State drove for two early touchdowns. But then Indiana came roaring back and it was only Bob Carey's field goal and extra points that gave MSC a final 30-26 score.

Munn is warning his squad that they can't trust Indiana to do the expected and lose gracefully this Saturday.

Ellis Duckett, the the high-scoring end, may not be able to make the trip because of a painful ankle twist. Gene Kekenta, the Grand Rapids field goal man and a replacement at righ half, also is a dubious starter.

Davey Will Fight Title Tuneup Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—Michigan's Chuck Davey, a welterweight contender, may have a Denver tune-up bout in early December for his expected title fight with Champion Kid Gavilan here in February.

An International Boxing Club spokesman said no opponent had been picked for the Denver bout, but that Davey has resumed training at Lansing. The IBC said the day likely will be Dec. 2 or 3.

Davey, a tricky southpaw, has been idle since beating Rocky Graziano in a 10-rounder here Sept. 17.

Tigers To Take 250 To Spring Training

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers are going to take 250 — that's right, 250 — baseball players to their spring training camp at Lakeland, Fla.

The 250 will include the Tigers' American League crew as well as the players signed by Detroit's seven farm clubs.

The city of Lakeland is preparing a former Air Force base on the outskirts of the city for the Tiger training camp. It is building four baseball diamonds there and repairing barracks to house the players.

Nominate Seven For All-America Honors

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—The southern board of nominators came up with seven more names today in the weekly screening of area football talent for All-America consideration.

Today's nominations included guard Tom Barton and halfback Billy Hair of Clemson, quarterback Jerry Barger of Duke, end Lou Weidensaul of Maryland, quarterback Marshall Newman of North Carolina, quarterback Dick Balka of South Carolina and guard Clyde Pickard of Wake Forest.

Thirty-seven players have now been nominated from the Southern Conference area.

The total attendance for the seven games of the 1952 World Series between the New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers was 340,906.

Passers Pace Grid Leaders

NEW YORK (AP)—It takes a pass to join the elite among the top ground-gainers in major college football circles these days — forward pass, that is.

Eight of the nine players who have managed to accumulate more than 1,000 yards this season are primarily forward passers, statistics released by the N. C. A. A. Service Bureau showed today, and the ninth has had to do a good deal of tossing himself.

Don Heinrich, of Washington, is the total offense leader, with 1343 yards in seven games. He also leads the passers in practically everything: 203 attempts, 106 completions, 1,337 yards and 12 scoring passes.

Behind him, in order, come Cincinnati's Gene Rossi, Columbia's Mitch Price, Maryland's Jack Scarbath, Detroit's Ted Marchibroda, Texas A. & M.'s Ray Graves, Vanderbilt's Bill Kreitemeyer and San Jose State's Lynn Aplanalp. As a group, these eight men have gained 89.2 per cent of their yardage by passing.

And ninth is Harvard's Dick Clasby, with 1,017 yards of which 695 have been made by rushing.

Files Paternity Suit Against Golfing Star

TOLEDO, O. (AP)—A 24-year- old beauty has filed a paternity charge against Frank Stranahan, amateur golf star and heir to an auto-parts business fortune.

The 30-year-old Stranahan posted $300 cash bail at Lucas County Jail yesterday on the charge, filed in Domestic Relations Court last Wednesday by Miss Irene Buchelle

She accused Stranahan of fathering a daughter born to her last April 11. Neither Stranahan nor his attorney would comment on the charge. A hearing date has not yet been set.

U. S. Horsemen Get Good Start

NEW YORK (AP)— For the first time in many a year, the United States today was conceded a good chance of winning the majority of international jumping trophies at its own top even—National Horse Show.

The Americans already have the first two of the 13 big jumping tests in the bag, mainly through young Billy Steinkraus' efforts in the opening session yesterday.

To the amazement of one and all—including the 10,000-odd spectators at Madison Square—Steinkraus outrode everyone representing the teams of the United States, Mexico, Ireland, Canada and France.

He took the Royal Winter Fair trophy in the afternoon then came back at night to win the International Good Will challenge trophy.

Steinkraus, a 27-year-old Westport, Conn., jumper was on 19-year-old Democrat in both tests. United States to third place in the difficult Prix De Nations test at the Olympics this year, distinctly outrode Mexico's famed Gen. Humberto Mariles, who walked off with four of the international medals last year.

Gen. Mariles was third behind Mrs. Carl Durand of Kansas City in the Royal Winter Fair riding and was shut out in the Good Will event.

Spartans Beat Foes, But Don't Kill Them

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING (AP)—Remember when—not so long ago— Notre Dame was the unbeatable giant among the nation's football teams?

The saying then was that any team was beaten twice when it played Notre Dame. Once by Notre Dame and again the following Saturday by the next school on the schedule because of the physical punishment inflicted by the Irish.

Now that Michigan State is the top dog in the country this doesn't seem to be true of the Spartans.

Most Bounce Back

Most of the teams that play Michigan State bounce right back for their next game—apparently because Spartans don't leave the playing field littered with stretcher cases.

The record of MSC opponents whipped this year tends to support that contention.

Michigan, after losing 27-13, was edged 14-7 by Stanford the following week but then went on to triumph over Indiana, Northwestern and Minnesota by convincing scores.

Oregon State, shaded 17-14 seems to be the sole exception since on consecutive Saturdays the Beavers then lost to Stanford, Southern California, Washington State and Washington.

But the premise here would more reasonably be that Oregon State just didn't have the stuff this year.

Texas A & M, after losing 48-6 here, tied TCU 7-7 and then lost by one point to Baylor.

Bet On Purdue

Syracuse, a 48-7 loser to Michigan State, edged Holy Cross 20-19 its next time out.

Penn State went on to beat a highly regarded Penn team 14-7 after bowing 34-1 to Michigan State.

And the betting is that Purdue, beaten 14-7 by the Spartans, will conquer Minnesota, Michigan and Indiana and wind up in the Rose Bowl.

Coach Biggie Munn is proud of the fact that he has a "happy" football team at Michigan State.

"I try to keep the pressure off the boys," Munn says. "The coaches try to stress that football is fun and that the players shouldn't take the game with deadly seriousness."

Ike Is Great Sports Fan, Played Football At Point

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the president-elect, is perhaps the most sports minded chief executive in our nation's history.

He was a football player at West Point, proud of the fact he once tackled the great Jim Thorpe. He took a brief fling at baseball in the Central League. Today—still at his old playing weight of 173 pounds—he shoots a bang-up game of golf.

When A. B. (Happy) Chandler was dismissed as commissioner of baseball more than a year ago, Eisenhower was among those considered for the post. But his duties as NATO chief in Europe were too important.

Ike is an avid sports fan.

"Football is a tremendous spectacle," he says. "I remember I saw my first game from the sidelines with Gus Dorais (Notre Dame) throwing passes to the Rock (Knute Rockne)."

Golf is the president elect's game today. He says his figure is 90 and up but acknowledged he fired a 79 two years ago and recently had an 82.

It was against Tufts in 1913 that Eisenhower sufered a torn cartilage in his knee, cutting short his athletic career. "It took five days to straighten out the leg," he said.

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP)— Here's a vague vote from a puzzled pigskin precinct:

Oklahoma 28, Notre Dame 19—The nation's TV viewers will see a rootin- tootin affair. Oklahoma would like to leave some cleat marks on Notre Dame for Michigan State to peruse the following Saturday.

Purdue 21, Minnesota 13—The Boilermakers better not take their eye off the ball against the Gophers, who are still playing Michigan the next Saturday, Dale Samuels and Max Schmaling should neatly chase the Gopers to cover.

Michigan State 28, Indiana 7—After their collapse at Pittsburgh, the Hoosiers loom only a slight pebble in the path of the roaring Spartans. Michigan State needs those first-place votes in The Associated Press poll in which Maryland is crowding Biggie Munn's maulers.

Wisconsin 20, Northwestern 14—Alan (The Horse) Ameche is kicking his heels again. Wisconsin also is in the Big Ten crowd chasing a Rose Bowl bid.

Illinois 19, Iowa 12—A meeting of a couple of Big Ten basement giant-killers. The Illini seem better equipped, although a let-down is natural after tumbling Michigan.

Pittsburgh 21, Ohio State 14—The Panthers have claws this year as Notre Dame, Army and Indiana discovered.

Michigan 21, Cornell 0—High above Cayuga's waters there seems to be little football this season.

Five new track records, two on the flat and three in jumping events, were set during the 1952 Delaware Park meeting.

Kress Sharp In Wolve Practice

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Michigan's Ted Kress broke away for several long runs, two of them for touchdowns, yesterday as the Wolverines scrimmaged against Cornell defensive patterns set up by the reserves.

Michigan and Cornell tangle here Saturday in an intersectional tilt.

Running with Kress in the backfield during the brisk 20-minute scrimmage were Ted Topor at quarterback, Dick Balzhiser at fullback, and Tony Branoff and Frank Howell, who alternated at right halfback.

Tom Witherspoon, a right halfback, was on the sidelines nursing an injured ankle. It still was doubtful if he would be able to play Saturday.

Ron Williams, a guard who suffered an angle injury in the Illinois game, but is expected to be able to play.

Ore Carriers Hope To Reach 1952 Goal Of 75 Million Tons

CLEVELAND (AP)—With 66,169,435 tons already moved, Great Lakes vessel owners expressed optimism today about reaching their 75,000,000-ton ore goal for 1952.

Last week the ore carriers hauled 3,021,148 tons to lower lake ports bringing the October total to 13,013,250. The weekly figure was 1,061,349 tons more than the amount for the same period last year and the monthly total surpassed October, 1951, by 1,923,795 tons.

About four more weeks remain in the shipping season. As the weather gets colder, loading of the vessels will be slower, however, due to the frozen condition of the ore.

Cruise To Scrap Heap Again Delayed For City Of Grand Rapids

LUDINGTON (AP)—The "City of Grand Rapids," at one time a queen among Great Lakes pleasure steamers, is making her last voyage a memorable one.

The former excursion vessel has been consigned to the scrap heap. A Canadian salvage firm purchased the boat a month ago and planned to take her to Hamilton, Ont.

The proud vessel refused to start her trip at St. Joseph. She broke a line and temporarily blocked the harbor of the western Michigan city.

Monday the "City of Grand Rapids" put in at Ludington. The pleasure boat, towed by the tug "Helena", ran into fog.

Perkins

PERKINS—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lippens and family left Friday for Menominee to visit Mrs. Lippens' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Geniesse. From there they will go to Los Angeles to make their home.

The C. Y. O. held a Halloween party at St. Joseph Hall with young people of St. Nicholas, Rock, Brampton and Perkins attending.

Dancing and games were followed by a lunch. The members were in costume and the decorations were in the Halloween colors.

Nests are built not only by birds but by some mammals, reptiles, amphibia, fishes and invertebrates.

BEE GRAVEYARD

Each bee colony has its own graveyard, located near a stream of water. When a bee knows death is approaching, its duty is to walk to the graveyard, so it doesn't contaminate the other bees.
